

known that he has no idea of seeking the great office after this five year period. There is no doubt that Mr. Cohen will succeed him—and he is just the man for the place; he is a great big man; a deeply religious and devoted Jew, a distinguished citizen, a wise counsellor and a tactful leader and these qualities make him the ideal man for the great, exalted and important position, which is now so admirably filled by the beloved and highly respected Adolf Kraus.

RABBINICAL COLLEGE OF CHICAGO.

Having spent three months in Chicago, I visited the Yeshivah every day. I enjoyed very much to see how young men coming from High School and from other institutions to hear the lectures from the Roshhivah, Rabbi Rubinstein.

There are young men flocking from St. Louis and other cities. The Yeshivah is taking in young men with good recommendations and keeps them till they become competent to be rabbis.

Like Yavne of old or Wolishin of Russia the Yeshivah is free and open to everybody who is eager to learn. It is in the right place in the center of the United States. It is the aim of the managers to promote the study of the Holy Talmud and to produce great men for the benefit of mankind.

It has already shown great results in the course of several years and it is increasing every month. The Chicago Jews are going to build a great building of over $100,000. But since there is a scarcity of rabbis, teachers, shochtim and learned men, the Yeshivah is a benefit for everybody and it ought to be patronized by everybody. The study of the Holy Talmud is the stronghold of the Jewish nation. It keeps them together and they can not be destroyed from the face of the earth.

Israel will exist forever.
